

Training Pack for Youth Workers - Quiz

Module: Community-based Interventions

Commented [JF1]: This document seems to be a direct copy of the document "RESET Training Pack for youth workers", so that translation can be applied here if it is indeed a different one at all.

1. Community-based interventions refer to programs that aim to prevent:

- a) Social issues
- b) Economic issues,
- c) Environmental issues
- d) All the above

Answer: (d)

1. Community members have an active role in the interventions.

- a) True
- b) False

Answer: True

2. Community is always defined by geographical factors.

- a) True
- b) False

Answer: False

3. The Ladder of Citizen Participation consists of:

- a) Three levels of participation
- b) Five levels of participation
- c) Eight levels of participation

Answer: (a)

Fill in the blanks with the correct word from the list below:

4. Manipulation, one of the rungs of the Ladder of Citizen Participation, occurs when citizens are given power, for example by participating in or by participating as components without a substantial role in protests.

- a) active
- b) realistic
- c) advisory boards
- d) illusively
- e) passive
- f) executive boards

5. A Community Action Plan should include some of the following:

- a) What needs to change.
- b) What actions or changes will occur.

- c) Communication (who should know what?).
- d) All the above.

Answer: (d)

6. During the community intervention it is important to focus on
- a) Community shortages
 - b) Community resources
 - c) Community partnerships

Answer: (b)

7. The purpose of Asset-Based Community Development is:
- a) Changing community through increased services
 - b) Changing community through governmental support
 - c) Changing community through citizen involvement

Answer: (c)

8. Participatory Action Research (PAR) follows a:
- a) Linear model
 - b) Circular - spiral model

Answer: (b)

9. Community-based interventions give a leading role to in solving problems, since they know better the and issues that concern them. The goal is to highlight the of the community based on everyone's individual Community-based interventions use Methods that contribute to the enforcement of democracy. can take an active role in issues that directly affect them and at the same time they personally.

- a) Young people
- b) Potential
- c) Participatory
- d) Community members
- e) Skills and knowledge
- f) Priorities
- g) Issues